February Spotlight:

Counselor Resources

National School Counselor Week 2023 (#NSCW23) is February 6–10, focusing public attention on the superhuman contributions of school counselors all over our great country. This month, we're highlighting some of the resources available at UCanGo2.org that can give Oklahoma's counselors some extra help and hopefully a little time to grab another cup of coffee.

PUBLICATION RESOURCES

Student Workbooks

Our college access workbooks for high school and middle school students provide valuable information about planning, preparing and paying for college. They can be used in a classroom setting, or broken into units to teach separately. Students can also find the workbooks in the High School and Middle School Educator's sections at UCanGo2.org.

Counselor Toolkit

Take advantage of the free materials found in our College Planning Toolkit, available in the Educators section at UCanGo2.org. Pick and choose the resources you need to enhance your college access efforts throughout the year.

Don't forget that UCanGo2 also provides some great Spanish publications! ¿Estas planeando ir a la Universidad? (Are You Planning to Go to College?) offers college planning tips for grades 9-12, as well as information on completing the FAFSA and finding scholarships for college. Consider distributing this to your Spanish speaking students and parents.

Spanish financial aid publications and videos are also available at StudentAid.gov.

Pida Préstamos Estudiantiles De Manera Inteligente Desde El Principio (bajar PDF) highlights important steps to take and tips to consider to help students 'Borrow Smart From the Start.'

Visit StartWithFAFSA.org to view a step-by-step video on FAFSA completion in Spanish.
